1 Introduction

- 1.1 If you proceed to make your booking with us you agree to be legally bound by this contract.
- 1.2 When making your booking you also agree to be legally bound by extra terms which may add to, or replace some of, this contract. This may happen for any changes to the relevant legislation relating to your booking, such as any changes to health and safety legislation. We will contact you to let you know if we intend to do this by giving you two weeks' notice. These terms shall form part of this contract as though set out in full here.
- 1.3 Please bear in mind that much of our properties' character and charm is due to their age and they are at the heart of a historic and active rural estate. Sandon Bury Farm is a working farm with associated farm activities and so please ensure you keep a safe distance from any farming activities taking place. If you have any concerns, please talk to us at the time of making your booking. Also, please remember that should traditional property features (steep stairs or low beams, for example) be a problem for any member of your party, you must consider and mention this prior to booking.

2 Your privacy and personal information

- 2.1 Our Privacy Policy is available on request and is available online at www.sandonmanor.com
- 2.2 Your privacy and personal information are important to us. Any personal information that you provide to us will be dealt with in line with our Privacy Policy, which explains what personal information we collect from you, how and why we collect, store, use and share such information, your rights in relation to your personal information and how to contact us and supervisory authorities if you have a query or complaint about the use of your personal information.

3 Booking with us

- 3.1 Below, we set out how a legally binding contract between you and us is made.
- 3.2 When you make your booking by completion of our booking form or by speaking with us, we will acknowledge your request during the telephone call or by a further follow up call or email. Alternatively, if you are making a booking via our website then this acknowledgement will be sent to you by email to the address provided. This acknowledgement does not, however, mean that your booking has been accepted.
- 3.3 We may contact you to say that we do not accept your booking. If we do this, we will try to tell you promptly why we do not accept your booking. This is typically for the following reasons:
 - 3.3.1 the date was shown as available in error;
 - 3.3.2 we cannot authorise your payment;
 - 3.3.3 if you are under the age of 18 years of age;

- 3.3.4 your booking request exceeds our capacity or relates to certain group bookings that we do not permit; or
 - 3.3.5 there has been a mistake on the pricing or description of the services.
- 3.4 We require a non-refundable deposit of 25% of the total booking cost to be paid at the same time as your booking request.
- 3.5 We will only accept your booking when we have received your deposit, completed booking form and confirmation of booking from the Office of the Registrar. We will confirm this to you in writing or we will send you an email to confirm this (Booking Confirmation Email). At this point:
- 3.5.1 a legally binding contract will be in place between you and us; and
 - 3.5.2 your booking will finalised.

4 Charges and payment

- 4.1 Details of the total charge for the booking and the deposit paid will be set out in the Booking Confirmation Email. All sums stated are exclusive of VAT.
- 4.2 Your card details will be kept on file securely for balance payments, optional extras and the security deposit pre-authorisation relating to your booking.
- 4.3 The balance due for the booking is due 35 days before your arrival date. We will send a reminder when this is due for payment. Should you fail to pay by the due date your booking will be cancelled, and you may be charged a cancellation administration fee of £100.00. If your booking is made within 35 days prior to the arrival date the full balance is due immediately in order to secure the booking.
- 4.4 We also require payment of a Security (Damages) Deposit. The Security Deposit is a pre-authorised amount on your credit card which will be held on your behalf. The pre-authorisation will not show as a transaction on your statement as the amount is simply held but please be aware that it may affect your available balance. The pre-authorisation will be released in full within 14 days of departure provided that the property has been left in a clean and tidy order, that there have been no damages or breakages during your stay and provided that you have complied in full with the provisions of these Terms and Conditions, in particular clause 5. We will try to release the Security Deposit as soon as possible after your departure. In the event that the cost of the damage exceeds the amount of the Security (Damages) Deposit that has been paid, you shall pay the excess to us within 14 days of the date of our notifying you.
- 4.5 In the event that you fail to make a Security Deposit then your booking will be cancelled, and you will be charged a cancellation charge on the same basis as set out in clauses 9 and 10.
- 4.6 The price of the booking does not include the following, which is not an exhaustive list:
- (a) any activities that are offered at the property by us or a third party;

- (b) food or drink;
- (c) any additional items identified on our website for the property;

8 Changes to your booking

- 8.1 We reserve the right to make changes to your booking. We will always endeavour to try to fulfil your booking request but there are circumstances that may mean that we cannot avoid the need to do so. We will contact you by phone if reasonably possible in the case of a significant change or cancellation and if only a minor change will do so by email or post as soon as reasonably practical. We will have no further liability to you should we need to make any change.
- 8.2 If you request a change to your booking, this shall only take effect when we have confirmed this in writing with you.
- 8.3 We reserve the right specifically in relation to the Covid 19 (or any mutation of it) and any recommendations from government or any health organisation related directly or indirectly to Covid 19 to modify your booking in line with Government advice and subject to our own assessment of what is reasonable for the health and safety of us, our agents, caretakers and cleaners. In particular we may need to change your arrival or leaving date so as to ensure a sufficient period between bookings to undertake a deep clean and also to leave the property empty for a period time. We will advise you of any changes that we need to make as soon as possible.

9 Your right to cancel – Accommodation and Intimate Weddings

- 9.1 We recommend that you take out appropriate Cancellation Insurance Policy to protect your booking. Please note that there may be restrictions in your insurance policy to prevent you claiming for any reason relating to the Covid-19 pandemic and any mutation of or illness associated with the virus. This may mean that you will be liable for the full amount of your booking even should you be unable to travel or undertake the whole or any part of your stay.
- 9.2 You may cancel your booking at any time but will be subject to our cancellation charges as set out in this clause. Once you have paid your deposit the full balance of your booking becomes due 35 days prior to your arrival date.

9.3 If you cancel more than 35 days prior to the arrival, the deposit shall be retained as a genuine pre-estimate of the loss that we have suffered as a result of the cancellation. If you cancel less than 35 days before your arrival date, the cancellation charge shall be calculated in accordance with clause 9.4 below.

9.4 In the event that you wish to cancel, we will use all reasonable endeavours to rebook the Property and the Intimate Wedding. In the event that we are able to do so, we will refund to you the total amount that we have recovered. Please note that if we are unable to re-book the property then all sums due from you remain payable on the due date as specified in the Booking Confirmation Email. If you have booked an activity that we are arranging for you and you cancel with less than 35 days' notice, then we expect you to pay the cost of that activity. If you need to rearrange, you should provide at least 14 days' notice. No refunds for unused activities will be given unless at least 14 days' notice has been given.

10.2 If we cancel

On occasion, we may have to cancel a scheduled activity. This may occur, for example, if a third party supplier is unavailable. If we have to cancel a scheduled activity, we may offer you another session without further charge to you or offer you a refund of the fee for that activity.

11 Events outside of our control

- 11.1 Upon the occurrence of an event beyond our reasonable control which prevents or delays performance of our obligations under this contract, our obligations to you may be cancelled or delayed. Our inability to proceed and/or any delay shall not be treated as a breach of these terms and conditions and we shall not be liable to pay any compensation, expenses or costs (such as travel or replacement accommodation costs). We also reserve the right to recover our own costs incurred as a result of the cancellation prior to refunding you.
- 11.2 If the cancellation occurs as a result of a national or regional lockdown, we may offer to move your booking to a future date and all monies paid as at that date will be applied to your new booking date. Please note that the price of the future date may vary due to the new booking being at peak times and if accepted by you, you agree to pay the additional sum.
- 11.3 We cannot take responsibility for the actions of third parties, including any disturbances, works or other issues from neighbouring properties. We will not be liable for any impact that this may have on your stay.

12 Problems with your booking and disputes

- 12.1 Nothing in this contract affects your legal rights under the Consumer Rights Act 2015 (also known as 'statutory rights'). You may also have other rights in law.
- 12.2 Please contact us using the contact details at the top of this contract if you have any issues. We will try to resolve any disputes with you quickly and efficiently.

- please contact us as soon as possible.
